to bedrock of a crater

cleared of rubble and bones. We look up, up, up these twin towers of light until we must shield our eyes from their source, more luminous than sun and moon and stars. What is the source? Not firestorm of planes commandeered and exploded in misbegotten piety and hate. Not savage burning of "heathen" temples or churches, mosques or synagogues. Not merciless holocaust of "enemy" fields and forests, schools and homes and people. The source of light may go by different names in your religion and mine, vet somehow the twin towers remind us of two neighbors filled with the radiance of the Golden Rule. Neighbor from anywhere, let us not quarrel about holy names and ancient cruelties. Let us fill the crater with loam and plant a new garden on Earth. In honor of heroes and loved ones. let us summon the courage, wisdom, and kindness to dwell in mutual peace. Can we not become towers of light?

CELEBRATING THE REDEDICATION OF THE SAN DIMAS CATHOLIC CHURCH OF MALESSO

HON. ROBERT A. UNDERWOOD

OF GUAM

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 1, 2002

Mr. UNDERWOOD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the rededication of one of Guam's oldest churches, the San Dimas Catholic Church of Malesso. This Sunday, September, 29, 2002, the residents of Guam will celebrate and welcome the new church building, the patron saint of Malesso, which is the island's southernmost village. For more than three centuries the San Dimas Catholic Church has stood as a center of faith and traditions for the community of Malesso. On the eve of the rededication celebration, I would like to commemorate the rich history the San Dimas Church and the village of Malesso have brought to my district of Guam.

The history of Catholic missionaries in Guam began on June 9, 1671, when the Spanish ship Buen Socorro docked in Umatac Bay with four new padres for the Marianas Mission. The four had come to relieve three Fathers already working in the Marianas under the guidance of Father San Vitores. Two of the new priests, Father Francisco Esquerra and Father Francisco Solano, had come from the Philippines by way of Mexico.

The Padres worked hard in Hagatna, the capitol city of Guam, preaching to Spanish soldiers and lay workers, while maintaining carefully the devoted congregations formed by Father San Vitores. They rebuilt the Hagatna church, which had been destroyed in the typhoon of 1671. Father Esquerra and the other Padres soon were not content to work only in Hagatna, and began to make various mission journeys covering more than half the island.

Late in 1672, Father Esquerra became concerned at the great distance they had to travel to get to the usual anchorage of the ships, which was the port of San Antonio de Umatag (Umatac). He decided that it would be good to have a church in the southern part of the island which the Padres could settle. Father Esquerra decided upon the village of Malesso, and built a church there under the patronage of San Dimas. The Padre himself carefully attended the construction of the church. Two years later in 1674, Father Esquerra was martyred. However, the legacy of the San Dimas Church still lives today.

Thirty-one pastors have served the people of San Dimas Parish for 330 years. The Padres include:

1672–1674 Fr. Francisco Esquerra, S. J.; 1674–1799 Fr. Raphael Canicia, S. J. & other Jesuits; 1800–1805 Fr. Cristobal Ibanez; 1836–1848 Fr. Jose Ferrer; 1851–1860 Fr. Juan Fernandez;

1864–1869 Fr. Faustino Fernandez Del Corral;

1870–1886 Fr. Mariano Martinez; 1886–1890 Fr. Juan Herrero; 1890–1891 Fr. Jose Lamban; 1891–1893 Fr. Ildefonso Cabanilla; 1893–1899 Fr. Crisogono Oitin;

1908–1923 Fr. Cristobal de Canals; 1923–1927 Fr. Bernabe de Caseda; 1930–1934 Fr. Gil de Lagana;

1935–1936 Fr. Narcelo de Vallava; 1937–1940 Fr. Pastro de Arrayoz; 1940–1942 Fr. Marcian Pellet;

1942–1945 Fr. Jesus Duenas & Fr. Oscar Calvo ministered to the people of Guam during the War Occupation;

1945–1947 Fr. Marcian Pellet (Returns from a prison camp);

1947–1948 Adelbert Donlon: 1948-1950 Fr. Julius Sullivan: 1950-1953 Fr. Alexander Feeley; 1954-1956 Fr. Antonine Zimmeran; 1956-1957 Fr. Svlvan Conover: 1957-1967 Fr. Timothy Kavinaugh; 1967-1987 Fr. Lee Friel; 1987-1987 Fr. Felixberto Leon Guerrero; 1987-1988 Fr. Patrick Castro;

1988–1997 Fr. Jose Villagomez;

1997–1998 Fr. Eric Forbes; Archdiocesan Clergy; and

1998-Present Fr. Mike Crisostomo

Nearly 80 percent of Guam's residents are Roman Catholics. This identity has profoundly shaped many of the island's culture and traditions. For more than three centuries, pastors and parishioners have given their time and skills with strong loyalty and devotion to the San Dimas Church.

The reopening of the doors at the San Dimas Catholic Church of Malesso after four years of being closed to rebuild the church structure is especially meaningful to those who dedicated countless hours to coordinating its reconstruction. Hundreds of church volunteers led by San Dimas' Pastor, Pale Mike Crisostomo, devoted and sacrificed time working on the church's Finance Council, Demolition Crew, Worship Space Volunteer Committee, Dedication Committee, Parish Council, Pastoral Planning Committee, Finance Committee, Solicitation Committee, Building Committee, Cemetery Committee, Confraternity of Christian Mothers, Angel Tree Project, Faith Formation or "Eskuelan Pale", Ministers of Liturgy, Sacristan, Eucharistic Ministers, Acolytes, Altar Servers, Music Ministry, Knights of Columbus, Maintenance and Landscaping, and Office Staff, to make the rebuilding and rededication of San Dimas Church a great success.

I would also like to recognize and commend the many individuals who spent tireless hours coordinating the celebration, from those who will prepare the food for the village feast, set up all of the palapalas and tents, decorate the church and surrounding areas and the celebrants who will all help to usher in the new San Dimas Catholic Church of Malesso this year. Biba San Dimas! Biba Malesso! Biba Guam!

HONORING THE MEMORY OF KENNETH MICHAEL GRAFF

HON. STEVE ISRAEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 1, 2002

Mr. ISRAEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to 2 Lieutenant Kenneth Michael Graff, USMC, upon his passing on September 23, 2002 while attending Naval Aviation School at Pensacola Naval Air Station.

Lt. Graff was born and raised in Dix Hills, NY, and was a 1996 graduate of Half Hollow Hills High School East. In 2001, he graduated from the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, (USMMA), located in the town of Kings Point, NY, on Long Island. Kenneth was revered by all of his peers because of his kind spirit and his overwhelming willingness to help others.

Whether it was in the classroom, on the athletic field, or in the regiment, Lt. Graff excelled in every facet of the Academy. In the regiment, Kenneth held charge of an entire platoon in his company, as well as multiple petty officer and squad leader billets. He was a key member of both the Academy soccer and baseball teams, where he turned in outstanding All-Star and championship team performances. Kenneth was a fierce competitor, a strong student, an outstanding athlete, and a person who took pride in his regiment.

Lt. Graff was a caring and thoughtful person. who could find common ground with any of the midshipmen, from his peers to his subordinates. He was secure in himself and focused on his goals. This dedication and focus is exemplified by his success at the Academy, his decision to accept a commission in the U.S. Marine Corps and his selection to Naval Flight School. These key events show the honor, integrity, drive, and patriotism of this young man.

Mr. Speaker, this is a tribute to a young man who was at the beginning of a promising and fruitful life. Though his life was short, he was an outstanding young man brought up by loving parents, family and friends. We will miss him and the promises and potentials he represented. We need more young people of his upbringing and caliber to enrich our families, communities, and country. My condollences go to his parents, Orris and Kenneth Graff and his brother, Michael John. I salute the memory of their son and brother, 2nd Lt. Kenneth Michael Graff, USMC.
